Dear Darren and all at Zulu Alpha Straps,

Thank you for your generous donation of £20,528.01 to the DEC Ukraine Humanitarian Appeal, which will help children like Dmytrus* and Sasha* (pictured).

They've both been through a living nightmare.

But now, thankfully, they're safe.

"I don't want anyone else to ever feel like we're feeling," says their dad, Artem*.

When their hometown in Ukraine came under attack, the family grabbed what they could – documents, money, a few clothes – and fled for their lives. At the Romanian border, in snow and sub-zero temperatures, they had to wait 15 hours before they could cross.

Once over the border, the family was met by our emergency team, who have set up a distribution centre giving out food, water, blankets and children's toys.

Thanks to the support of people like you, we're going to help many more children get life-saving care – and a chance of the future they deserve.

Yours sincerely

Annabel Garner

* We've changed Dmytrus, Sasha and Artem's names to help keep them safe.
